

The Struggle for Agrarian Reform Today: Lessons from Brazil

Now that the Land Summit is over, what happens next? The unity of civil society organisations demonstrated before and during the Land Summit needs to be strengthened now more than ever. In trying to develop alternative land and agrarian reform models, it is important to learn from others who've done it differently. Such an opportunity is presented to us by members of the MST, who will be visiting South Africa in August. You are therefore invited to interact with leaders of the LPM and MST as we deliberate on the present struggle for Agrarian Reform and looking at lessons we can take from Brazil. Direct Class Action or State-led Land and Agrarian Reform

Speaker: Prof. Ramos Rosa, (Federal University Rio de Janeiro) and Input from LPM

Date: 10 August 2005

Time: 16:00 – 18:00

Venue: Surplus People Project, 45 Collingwood Road, Observatory

RSVP: Ndumi/Ricardo 021 448 5605